

11. Course Evaluation and Feedback

11.1 Course and Teaching Evaluation Questionnaire

Course and Teaching Evaluation (CTE) is a key quality assurance mechanism for teaching and learning and is conducted as a compulsory exercise at the University. Students' opinions about the courses they have taken and about the teacher(s) of the course are collected through the CTE Questionnaire. The results will be used for the enhancement of quality of teaching and learning, and of curriculum design. The results will also be made known to the students through controlled access.

11.2 Exit survey (Survey on Taught Postgraduate Programmes)

Upon graduation, all TPg students will be invited by the Graduate School to complete a Survey on Taught Postgraduate Programmes. The survey, which can be regarded as an exit survey, is for the quality assurance of the TPg programmes at the University. The purpose is to collect feedback from students on the quality of teaching and learning difficulties for the improvement of the TPg programmes. Individual responses will be kept strictly confidential.

The survey contains questions on admissions, teaching, programme of study and campus life, and also personal information without personal identifiers. Graduating students can make use of this chance to help improve the quality of the TPg programmes and the teaching and learning environments of the University.

As stated at the end of the Survey on Taught Postgraduate Programmes, students are most welcome to discuss their problems and/or suggestions with their Programme Director, Department Chairperson, Head of the Graduate Division, Faculty Dean, or the Dean of the Graduate School.
