

Schwarzman Scholars Program (Class of 2020)

Designed to prepare the next generation of global leaders, the Schwarzman Scholars Program gives the world's best and brightest students the opportunity to develop their leadership skills and professional networks through pursuing a fully-funded one-year Master's Degree in Global Affairs in Schwarzman College at Tsinghua University, with a concentration in one of the three disciplines: Public Policy, Economics and Business or International Studies.

Eligibility

- Have obtained undergraduate degree or first degree from an accredited college or university or its equivalent. Applicants who are currently enrolled in undergraduate degree programs must be on track to successfully complete all degree requirements by 1 August 2019. All fields of undergraduate study are welcome.
- Be at least 18 but not yet 29 years of age as of 1 August 2019.
- Be proficient in English.

Application Procedures

Interested candidates should submit an online application form and all the required documents by the deadline. There are two sets of application deadlines:

Deadline for applicants who hold passports from Mainland China, Hong Kong, Taiwan and Macao is 31 May 2018.

Applicants holding a passport from any other country will apply between April and September.

Details of the scholarship are obtainable from the website of the Schwarzman Scholars at <http://schwarzmanscholars.org/>.

Enquiries

The Schwarzman Scholars admission team has representatives in every region to help with enquiries. To contact a representative responsible for your region, please refer to the "Contact Us" page of Schwarzman Scholars' website at <http://schwarzmanscholars.org/contact-us/>.

19 April 2018

