Asian Future Leaders Scholarship Program 2019/20

The Asian Future Leaders Scholarship Program (AFLSP) awards up to 105 scholarships to high-caliber students in Asia each year to study abroad in leading universities across East Asia. Scholars are welcome to pursue the designated degree programs at any of the Anchor Universities (AU) or Participating Universities (PU), which include The Chinese University of Hong Kong (CUHK).

Coverage of the Scholarship

The scholarship offers each student up to US$25,000 per year or a total of US$50,000 per scholar, which may be used towards university tuition, accommodation costs, and personal living expenses.

BXAI Summer Program costs (for accommodation, food, and round-trip economy class flights) are separately covered by BXAI.

Eligibility

Students are eligible for the AFLSP if they are:
(1) Asian students interested in pursuing a full-time degree program at AU; OR
(2) Prospective and existing Asian students of PU from Mainland China, Hong Kong SAR, Macao SAR, Taiwan, Japan, and Korea.

AFLSF Scholarship only supports Asian students who wish to study abroad in Asia at one of the AUs or PUs. For example, prospective and existing Asian students from Mainland China, Macao SAR, Taiwan, Japan, and Korea who will study full-time taught Master's degree programs at CUHK in the academic year 2019/20 are eligible for this exercise of AFLSP.

Scholars must commit to attending the 3-week BXAI Summer Program.

Please visit BXAI’s website at http://www.bxai.org/ for all eligibility, selection criteria and commitments.

Application Procedures

Students interested in applying for the AFLSP at AU should contact the relevant university direct.

Students interested in applying for the AFLSP at PU should: (1) apply for admission directly with the university (prospective students only), and (2) complete the BXAI online application form on BXAI’s website (both prospective and existing students) on or before 31 January 2019.

Further details of application procedures are also obtainable from BXAI’s website.
